Missionaries to the Deaf and the Hearing in the UNITED KINGDOM

"He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber." – Psalm 121:3

Dear Yokefellows,

It's Spring Missions Conference season and you know what that means? Traveling! I want to take a moment to praise the Lord for His abundant care for us. Recently, we took a trip to Georgia for a mission conference at Harvest Baptist Church of the Deaf. While we were driving, we drove into a severe thunderstorm! The rain was pouring, visibility was minimal, and the wind was extremely high. A total of four downed trees blocked three routes to our destination! The last ten minutes of our trip became an hour. We could hardly have been happier to arrive at long last.

We had a wonderful conference at Harvest. The fellowship was wonderful, the preaching was challenging, and the music was blessing. The Harvest Deaf choir does a wonderful job of painting a picture and touching our hearts. You may find a video of a part of their performance on our Facebook page. This conference was a challenge to me (Drew) as everything was in American Sign Language (ASL)! Most of the people in attendance were Deaf, so not only did I have to read a lot of ASL, but I also had to minister entirely in ASL. To think that I will one day do this in British Sign Language excites me!

The kids are doing well and enjoying our travels. Charlie is often talking about his new friends that he's made at a recent conference. Our more timid Josiah is beginning to come out of his shell. Timothy has started walking, but not entirely on his own. He will do short little toddles from here to there and seems pretty determined to master this walking thing.

What's next? Missions Conferences! We're excited about being at our sending church, Beacon Baptist Church, for their conference. We have several more conferences scheduled throughout the month of April and would appreciate your prayers for us as we travel and as we try to be a blessing wherever the Lord leads us.

God bless,
Drew and Melinda Wright
